

Student Revolt, City and Society – From the Middle Ages until Today

International Commission for the History of Universities & Network of University Historians, Finland

International Conference in Helsinki, 19-21 June 2013

Wednesday 19 June

Place: Topelia, Unioninkatu 38, room A205

13:00-13:10 Welcome (Ilkka Niiniluoto - former Chancellor of the University of Helsinki)

13:10-13:15 Opening (Laura Kolbe - University of Helsinki and Pieter Dhondt - University of Eastern Finland)

13:15-13:45 Students protests in the fifteenth century in the kingdom of France (Lyse Roy - Université du Québec à Montréal)

13:45-14:15 Student protests at the University of Orléans in the fifteenth century (provisional title) (Hilde Symoens - Ghent University)

14:15-14:45 Moving out! Student's Secessions as Symbolic Protest at Eighteenth Century German Universities (Marian Füssel and Steffen Hölscher - Georg-August-Universität Göttingen)

14:45-15:00 Discussion

15:00-15:30 coffee break

15:30-16:00 Student protests at Utrecht University in the eighteenth century (provisional title) (Leen Dorsman - Utrecht University)

16:00-16:30 It was decided in the Student Club: The first student strike and the city of Iasi (Leonidas Rados - Romanian Academy Iasi Branch, History Institute A.D. Xenopol)

16:30-17:00 Revolting for Human Dignity in Imperial Russia: Student Strike of 1899 (Yulia Komleva - Ural Federal University)

17:00-17:15 Discussion

17:30-18:00 Guided tour at Senate Square and University Main Building by Laura Kolbe

18:00- Reception at Old Student's house (Aleksanterinkatu 3)

Thursday 20 June

Place: Topelia, Unioninkatu 38, room A205

9:00-9:30 “Für den Kaiser erscholl in unserem Lager nichts als Jubel ...“ Students between revolutionary and loyal sentiments – The curious case of Innsbruck in 1848 (Christof Aichner and Matthias Egger - University of Innsbruck)

9:30-10:00 Re-generation. The students revolt of spring 1885 in Italy (Valentina Colombi - University of Turin)

10:00-10:30 Révoltes étudiantes dans la France contemporaine ... Dans la cité et dans l'univer[c]ité (1893-2009)! (Jean-Philippe Legois, Alain Monchablon, Robi Morder and Pierre Moulinier - Cité des mémoires étudiantes, Aubervilliers)

10:30-10:45 Discussion

10:45-11:15 coffee break

11:15-11:45 Students' revolt in the 1920s in Romania - from local incidents to national events. Reactions and reflections over anti-Semitic academic protests (provisional title) (Ana-Maria Stan - Babes-Bolyai University)

11:45-12:15 Student revolts in Leuven during the twentieth century (provisional title) (Louis Vos - KU Leuven)

12:15-12:30 Discussion

12:30-13:30 lunch

13:30-14:00 The Old Student House in Helsinki as a center of student activism in 1960's (Laura Kolbe and Sari Aalto - University of Helsinki)

14:00-14:30 Students, Polytechnical Institute and the 1905 revolution in Riga (Valters Ščerbinskis - Rīga Stradiņš University)

14:30-15:00 Books and Bombs? Barcelona's students in the violent urban conflicts during the interwar years (Florian Grafl - Justus-Liebig-Universität Giessen)

15:00-15:30 The content and a form of student protests at the Lithuanian (Vytautas Magnus) University of Kaunas, 1922-1939: between the challenges and realities (Saulius Kaubrys - Vilnius University)

15:30-15:45 Discussion

15:45-16:15 coffee break

16:15-16:45 The Students Revolts at the 60s at the Faculty of Architecture in Milan: cultural aspects and influences in the urban context (1962 – 1972) (Lucia Tenconi - Politecnico di Torino)

16:45-17:15 "I am John". Democratization at the Faculty of Social Sciences at the University of Groningen, The Netherlands, 1968 (Hilda Amsing and Marieke Stuurwold - University of Groningen)

17:15-17:45 The Peaceful Revolts – 1968 in the Nordic Welfare States (Thomas Brandt, Else Hansen, Sigríður Matthíasdóttir and Fredrik W. Thue - Norwegian University of Science and Technology, Danish National Archives, University of Iceland and University of Oslo)

17:45-18:00 Discussion

19:00- conference dinner hosted by Laura Kolbe

Address: Meritullinkatu 20A / bell: Forss - Kolbe, tel +358 9-135 5521 in case of delay

Friday 21 June

Place: Topelia, Unioninkatu 38, room A205

9:00-9:30 Walking out Dissent: Counter-Culture, Milieu, and Student Rebellion in Ceausescu's Romania (Florea Ioncioaia - The Alexandru Ioan Cuza University of Iași)

9:30-10:00 From 'Rome of the North' to 'Havana on the Waal'. Students of the Catholic University of Nijmegen and their influence on urban life in the 1970s (Jan Brabers - Radboud University Nijmegen)

10:00-10:30 Student revolt in the reflection of liberal transition in Serbia (Jovana Papović and Astrea Pejović - University of Belgrade)

10:30-11:00 coffee break

11:00-12:00 concluding remarks (Pieter Dhondt and Laura Kolbe) and final discussion